

RONALD S. BARNABEI, O.D.
1201 Summit Avenue
Fort Worth, TX 76102
P: 817-332-2020 Fax: 817-332-4797

EDUCATION

Nova Southeastern University Doctor of Optometry, May 2010	Fort Lauderdale, FL
Vanderbilt University Bachelor of Arts in History, May 2001 Concentration Equivalent in American Music History	Nashville, TN
University of New Orleans- Innsbruck Summer 1999 Studied History and German at Innsbruck University	Innsbruck, Austria

RELEVANT COURSE WORK

Cornea and Contact Lens Rotation – experience in fitting soft contacts, Rigid Gas Permeable contacts, specialty fit lenses for keratoconus and other irregular corneas. Certified in Orthokeratology.
Low Vision and Geriatrics – performed low vision exams and explored treatment options for patients.
Diabetes and Macular Degeneration – gained experience in diagnosing and treating patients with Diabetic Retinopathy and Macular Degeneration.
Pediatrics and Binocular Vision - performed comprehensive care on children from age 0-12, including special needs, infants, toddlers, learning related visual perceptual testing, and vision therapy for ocular-motor, accommodative, convergence dysfunctions, visual perceptual delays, strabismus and amblyopia.

EXPERIENCE

Ophthalmology Associates April 2011 to present Therapeutic Optometrist	Fort Worth, TX
Envision Eye Care, Optometric Intern February to May 2010 Primary Care in a full service Optometric Eye Care facility	Fort Lauderdale, FL
Braverman Eye Center, Optometric Intern November 2009 to February 2010 Primary Care with an Emphasis in Ocular Disease at a Center for Laser Vision Correction and Cataract Extraction Extensive experience in Pre- and Post-operative care of Cataract Extraction patients	Hallandale, FL

ACTIVITIES

Texas Optometric Association, Member
Dallas County Optometric Society, Member
American Optometric Association, Member
National Board of Examiners in Optometry, Member